DDK:

GOOD EVENING DEFIANCE FAITHFUL! My name is Darren Keebler and I'm joined, as always, by Angus Skaaland, and tonight we have a HUGE NIGHT in store for you!

Angus:

Huge is an understatement, Keeps.

DDK:

You may be right, partner. We have three title matches in store for all of you tonight.

Angus:

How many title matches tonight?

DDK:

THREE! As the dreaded ...

Angus:

DDK:

Angus:

For the love of god, why are we even letting this oversized clown bring that out here? DEFIANCE should only recognize DEFIANCE titles!

DDK:

Speaking of DEFIANCE titles - the Hollywood Bruvs defend the DEFIANCE Tag Team Titles tonight against The Kabal!

Angus:

Reaper Co?

DDK:

The same indeed, partner! And finally in the Main Event tonight we have Cayle Murray ...

I'LL GO AWAY ALRIGHT!

Angus:

What's up?

Angus asks Darren but he doesn't say a word as he is listening to the voice in his ear.

DDK:

Do we have a camera back there?

Angus:

What's going on Keeps?!?

DDK:

Nothing good I'm afraid from the sounds of it.

As Darren finishes his statement the image cuts to the backstage area and we see UTA superstar, Scott Stevens, putting the boots to Cayle Murray. Stevens then backs up a few steps and delivers a vicious Remember the Alamo -- Superkick to the side of Cayle Murray's face leaving the champion hunch over on the cold, concrete floor. The Texan reaches down and picks up the Fist of Defiance championship off of the floor and stares at it drawing massive boos from the faithful. Stevens slings the championship over his shoulder as he takes a seat next to The Fist.

Scott Stevens:

Looks good on me, no?

Stevens asks as he stares at the championship on his shoulder before grabbing Murray by his cheeks.

Scott Stevens:

You think I forgot Murray?!? You think I would let what you said slide?

Stevens yells at the champion.

Scott Stevens:

You think you're a big shot now don't you? Mr. I'm the Fist of Shitty Wrestling and I want everyone to forget that UTA gave me my first break!

Stevens says as he leans in closer to the Fist's face.

Scott Stevens:

You may have fooled everyone to forgetting your past, but we haven't and we don't like traitors. You talked all that shit years ago on social media about me about how you're better than me, but look who's unconscious right now?

Stevens says with a chuckle.

Scott Stevens:

Collecting Mikey's bounty will be too easy, but taking this championship from you will be just to sweet for me.

Stevens says with a smile.

Scott Stevens:

You told me years ago to hashtag, "Go Away" and how poetic will it be when I go away with your championship tonight.

Stevens informs Cayle as he gets to his feet and takes one more look at the Fist of Defiance championship before dropping it onto Cayle's body.

JACK HARMEN VS. ANDY MURRAY

The track runs through the usual drum & organ introduction, before kicking in with the rhythm in full flow. Andy Murray steps out from the backstage area, ready for a fight, and starts making his way down the ramp. Murray slaps hands as he goes, but looks a little grouchier than usual. He eventually reaches the bottom, rolls under the bottom rope, and throws a hand in the air.

Murray is on the apron, waving to the fans when Jack Harmen attacks from behind. A double ax-handle sends him crashing into the outside barricade. Harmen is quick to pounce, leaping over with a piscada that sends Murray back first back into the barricade. Harmen with a few rights and then he sends Andy sprawling into the steel steps. Benny Doyle yells at them from inside as Harmen hooks Murray from behind in a rear waist lock, and then just begins to slam him head and chest first into the outside exposed steel turnbuckle post. After five brutal shots, Harmen rolls Murray into the ring and climbs onto the apron. Benny Doyle checks on Andy, who tells him to ring the bell. When he does, Andy recovers to his feet, a blood trickle down his forehead and turns. He meets Jack, who's flying toward him.

DDK:

This isn't a match, it's a fight! Lou The-NO! SPINEBUSTER! Counter by Andy Murray and Harmen is SHOOK!

Harmen clutches the back of his head as Andy gathers his wearabouts. Andy is first to capitalize, hitting a body slam, a vertical suplex, and a big body press that gets the DEF crowd on their feet. Murray goes for a cover after each, but only gets a two count. Andy locks in a nerve hold on Harmen's neck, as Jack squirms. Benny Doyle is there to see Harmen refuse to give. Harmen rakes the eyes to break the hold, as Andy backs into the corner. Harmen goes for a stinger splash, but Murray moves, and Jack lands on the second rope to counter the counter. Harmen hits a second rope twisting hurraconrada, sending Andy across the ring.

Harmen slams his boot into the mat twice, sizing up Andy. As Murray gets to his feet, the crowd tries to warn him. Harmen charges, and Murray barely avoids it with a go behind into a full nelson. Harmen shakes his hands violently trying to break free, before Murray lifts him and SLAMS him with a full nelson slam. Murray then hits a gutwrench suplex, rolls into a second, and on the third, Harmen grabs the ropes on his upswing. Harmen uses this position to wrap his legs around Andy's head, and then spins his body, spiking Murray's head into the mat with a modified headscissors.

DDK:

This action is fast and furious Angus. Andy clearly has the strength advantage, but Harmen has the speed. If Jack was less unsavory, this would be a David and Goliath story.

Angus:

CRUSH HIM GOLIATH! Like how the fable SHOULD have gone!

Harmen laughs at the fallen Andy Murray. He begins to slap Andy across his head, taunting Big Murr, who gets to his feet and shoves Harmen clear across the ring into the far corner. Harmen's wind is knocked out, as Murray charges, shoulder lowered. Harmen barely moves, and Big Murr strikes the steel post with his shoulder and his head looked to at least graze it. Harmen lets loose with a few stomps to Andy's head and neck, before going to neutral corner and removing the turnbuckle pad, much to Benny Doyle's chagrin. This lets Murray recover, as he takes Harmen's head off with a LARIOT-to a large swell of cheers. Harmen 180°'s and lands face first on the mat. Murray dives on top for the pin.

Harmen gets a shoulder up. Murray locks in another rest hold, hitting a headlock. He wrenches the hold tight. Harmen fights to his feet, Big Murr having the advantage due to his size. After a few punches to the ribs, Harmen again rakes the eyes, blinding Andy. He charges, shoulder into Big Murr's gut and sending him back first into the exposed steel turnbuckle! Murray lets out a cry and falls to his knees. It's here Harmen rushes off the far ropes, and as Andy tries to stand back to his feet.

The boos begin to rain from the Faithful, as Harmen gets up from Andy and yells at Benny Doyle to raise his hand. Doyle reluctantly does. After, Harmen quickly rushes out of the ring, but oddly stays around ringside. He goes to Darren Quimbey, who's about to announce the results, only for Harmen to grab the steel chair he was sitting on.

DDK:

What is this?! The match is over!

Harmen slides back into the ring and watches the downed Murray struggle to get back to his feet. Harmen lets loose with three STIFF chair shots to Andy's back, sending him back down motionless. Benny tries to get involved, and Harmen shoves him away, raising the steel chair in his direction. Doyle slides out of the ring, calling for security and walking to Quimbey.

In the ring, Harmen lets out a devious smile. He looks down at the fallen Andy, and then proceeds to wrap the steel chair around both the head and neck. Harmen looks around to the booing DEF crowd, before he leaps at least five feet off the ground, legs tucked, and then SLAMS his boots down onto the folding chair's legs, causing the upper half to turn Big Murr into the turkey in a turkey sandwich.

DDK:

As DEFSec slides in, Harmen LEAPS off, coming CRASHING down with a double foot stomp to the steel chair's legs, once AGAIN crushing Andy Murray's neck. Harmen quickly climbs to his feet after, letting loose a WILD chuckle, until DEFSec literally tackles him down to the mat. Harmen kicks and punches, wrestling just free enough to slip out of the ring under the bottom rope. As he rushes around ringside, he heads over to the man making the match results.

Darren Quimbey:

Before he can finish, Jack Harmen had charged toward the time keeper's table. As Jack raises his leg for a locomotive, a DEFsec guard shoves Quimbey out of the way. He takes the shot for Darren, flipping over the timekeeper's table and sprawling to the guardrail. Harmen shrugs, laughs at Quimbey and Doyle, who seemed freaked. Harmen then backflips over the barricade and into the open area of the crowd, throwing his arm up in a Devil Horn taunt. He turns to a random fan who's shouting at him, and shouts "Want a broken neck?! CAUSE THAT'S HOW YOU GET A BROKEN NECK."

Brown lets Byrd up again and points towards Hurtlocker Holt, clearly telling the smaller man to tag in his much bigger partner. Byrd does so, and Holt comes in to tie up with Brown. Brown drops Holt with a drop toe hold and locks in a side headlock. He controls Holt into the corner and tags in Thompson.

Brown hold the side headlock as Thompson comes in with a chop block. Thompson follows up with a couple of knees to the same leg and then drops an elbow into Holt's knee joint. He cranks on the knee for a moment before reaching out to tag Brown back in. Thompson holds Holt's leg up as though for the single leg slingshot as Brown mule kicks his knee. Holt reaches out in vain for a tag, but Brown puts an immediate stop to that by pulling Holt up and taking him down with a German Suplex. Brown holds on to the waistlock and pulls Holt up for a second and then a third German.

After growing restless on the apron Emilio Byrd tries to enter the ring to help his partner, but he only serves to distract Benny Doyle. With the referee's attention elsewhere Brown drops a knee to the inside of Holt's thigh which looks suspiciously close to Hurtlocker's hurtlocker. Brown and Thompson tag again, this time Thompson ascends to the second rope as Brown picks up Holt and lifts him as though for a spinebuster. Thompson leaps and clotheslines Holt as Brown drops him with the spinebuster. HEAD OF THE SNAKE

We find "Downtown" Darren Keebler and Angus Skaaland once again, at the commentary booth.

DDK:

Last week viewers of Uncut were teased with an impromptu interview with Scott Douglas, moments after reclaiming his Southern Heritage Championship.

Angus:

Don't get me started on Uncut, Keebs.

That would promptly be cut off by Mikey Unlikely and according the production department that particular video file has seen to have gone missing.

Angus:

DDK:

LET'S GO now to the interview stage, where Lance Warner is standing by to speak once again with the Southern Heritage Champion ... "Sub Pop" Scott Douglas.

Cut to the interview stage.

Lance Warner stands, prim and proper in a suit, juxtaposed against Scott Douglas ... in what, at best could be described as a heroin addicts last outfit. The only thing setting Douglas apart from the hypothetical aforementioned avatar; GOLD.

The DEFIANCE Southern Heritage Championship Title draped across his shoulder. Cushioned by multiple layers of Douglas' choice of dress. Mutilated t-shirt: somewhat still vaguely expressing support for a the defunct, SUB POP, record label. Thin zip up gray hoodie peeking out from underneath a tattered and well worn leather jacket. Common for Douglas and given the recent cold snap - the additions aren't of any surprise.

Lance Warner:

Scott, when we spoke last week you expressed how much reclaiming the Southern Heritage Championship from Mikey Unlikely meant, both, to you AND to a DEFIANCE under siege. Since then, the leader of the rogue WrestleUTA contingent has declared himself the Hollywood Heritage Champion and painted the belt your currently holding as nothing more than a defunct relic.

Scott Douglas:

You got a question in there, Lance?

Lance:

In this ongoing war for DEFIANCE - and given that Mikey Unlikely currently held THAT very title for two hundred and forty four days what does this mean for DEFIANCE?

Scott Douglas:

Mikey Unlikely can pronounce himself the WrestleUTA Champion of whatever he wants ... but the fact remains ... THIS. IS. DEFIANCE.

The Faithful pop, of course.

Scott:

And in DEFIANCE ... this is the RECOGNIZED Southern Heritage Title ...

Douglas pauses.

Scott:

If Mikey Unlikely wants to have his lackey snatch up MY title ... parade around like HE'S the Champion - and once I TAKE BACK what IS mine ... up and create a new WrestleUTA belt. Fine. DEFIANCE won't recognize it. THE FAITHFULL WON'T RECOGNIZE IT!

Again they pop, because ... puppets.

Scott:

But ... I will.

Puppets no longer, the paying audience gasps in near unison. A few outliers scream expletives and, generally, disagreeing sentiments.

Scott:

If Mikey Unlikely wants to CALL himself a champion ... then the hell with it, he can be a champion ...

Boo's all around.

Scott turns his attention directly toward the camera grabbing the mic in Lance Warner's hands. Lance holds tight but Scott moves it directly in front of his mouth as he leans in.

Scott:

So ... it's paint by numbers, Mikey.

Scott leans back out of the intense close up and slaps the Southern Heritage Title. He pulls the mic and Lance Warners arm with him.

Scott:

Champion versus Champion. You're TWO HUNDRED AND FORTY FOUR DAYS ... against my meer ... one thirty ... eight? While the FIST of DEFIANCE is busy with the mormon minions ... and AS the empire crumbles ...

Scott pauses momentarily and looks toward Lance. He quickly turns back to the camera and continues.

Scott:

... MY ACT of DEFIANCE ...

He pauses once more; after a boisterous outburst. He returns softer yet more deliberate, his intensity building with each word.

Scott:

I'll take the head of the SNAKE!

Scott lets loose of the microphone and Lance's arm by proxy and exits the camera's view.

Lance Warner:

Well ... there you have it Scott Douglas has issued a challenge for Mikey Unlikely for ACTS of DEFIANCE! I'll send it back to you, Darren.

Cut back to the boys in the booth.

DDK:

The Challenge has been laid out by Scott Douglas, now it's up to Mikey whether they will meet!

Elise goes for a pinky promise but the mention of Jack Harmen stings Cayle just a bit, considering the events from earlier in the night when Jack Harmen brutally attacked his brother Andy after the match. Cayle saw his brother come and go fairly quickly, needing more thorough medical care. Trapped in his own thoughts, he leaves Elise awkwardly hanging who looks back at The D to save her.

Blackwood needs to keep this pace up. Keep hitting that bald moron!

Catalina rushes over to Harvey to see if his healing nose has been re-injured. Both have their back to Blackwood who is by the ring ropes far away from the duo. Blackwood's just waiting for his moment...

Then he speeds across the ring and goes for a baseball slide but Harvey evades the attack. Blackwood slides out of the ring and gets a closed fist to the face from Harvey. Catalina gets to a safe distance while Harvey goes on the offensive. Harvey has Blackwood by the hair and goes to slam Gage's head into the side of the ring but Blackwood blocks it. Blackwood lands a chop to Harvey's mid section and follows it with slamming his face into the ring apron. Harvey grabs at his nose, showing signs of pain. Blackwood tosses Harvey into the ring, as Harvey rolls across the mat.

Blackwood moves quickly, going up the ring steps. Gage shows signs that he's going to the top rope but as he makes his way up the turnbuckles he doesn't see Harvey on his feet coming over to him. Blackwood stands atop the ring ropes and gets crotched. The crowd lets out a loud moan, feeling the pain Gage is now in. Harvey comes in fast and cracks Blackwood in the skull with an step up enzuigiri.

DDK:

Unfortunately a well placed enzuigiri from Harvey!

Angus:

Little lax on going to the top from Gage Blackwood. He should have been moving faster.

Blackwood falls down off the turn buckle and hits the floor. The crowd boos as Harvey gloats, strutting around the ring. Cameras get a close up on Blackwood on the outside and it doesn't look good. We cut back to Harvey in the ring, who makes a home in the corner, propping his feet and body up across the top ropes.

Benny Doyle has already started his ten count on the fallen Blackwood. We move to a camera following Catalina, for obvious reasons. She gets up on the apron and her and Harvey are shooting the shit while Blackwood is still down on the outside of the ring.

Harvey doesn't look shocked by Blackwood making it in before ten. The crowd is back into this match and Harvey will focus to stop that. Jay moves in slowly, pointing at Blackwood. Gage still appears to be frazzled by the the actions that sent him crashing to the concrete floor minutes ago.

Harvey puts his hand under Blackwood's chin and raises it up to look him in the eyes. Harvey says something that microphones and cameras can't quite pick up. Blackwood snaps back into the match, grabbing Harvey by the head and going for a Small Package.

Harvey's eyes go wide. The crowd can't believe Blackwood almost defeated Harvey in such a manner. Harvey jolts upward, back to a vertical stance. He yells at Blackwood to get to his feet. He calls for him to stand up. Blackwood gets on his knees and gets beamed in the forehead from a right fist from Harvey. Blackwood shoots Harvey a look of death but Harvey doesn't waiver. Blackwood is getting to his feet, fighting through the attacks.

Blackwood gets vertical and blocks a right. The Scot returns with a stiff looking right elbow. The crowd is really going now as Blackwood lands another blow. He grabs Harvey by the back of the head and lands repeated elbow shots. Blackwood is like a man possessed. He finally drops Harvey down to the mat.

Blackwood lets out a roar and the fans are loving it. Blackwood keeps the action moving, bringing Harvey backup and Irish whipping him across the ring. He meets Harvey halfway and sends a spinning heel kick to Harvey's chops.

DDK:

The momentum has shifted in Gage Blackwood's corner!

Angus:

Harvey crawls over to the nearby corner while Blackwood waits in his corner for Harvey to get in proper position. Blackwood is getting fired up and looks to have Harvey right where he wants him. Blackwood shoots across the ring...

but so does Harvey.

DDK:

Harvey with 'The Wake Up Call'! Harvey could tell Blackwood was looking to end the match and put a stop to it!

Jack raises one finger to her, and walks off frame. When he returns, he has an incredibly large UTA sign that he places just in front of the DEFIANCE flag to large jeers. Harmen nods to Zane to continue.

Jack Harmen:

Harmen looks down at her chest as he says bouys, and then snarls up to her face to finish his statement. Zane's nose tweaks in anger.

Jack Harmen:

HURRY UP ALREADY and GET to your POINT.

Christie Zane:

You go outside of the lines of the law when fighting Andy, but you won't even give Elise Ares the time of day? What's the deal?

Christie Zane:

Some people say you might be afraid of Elise.

Jack Harmen doesn't say anything. He just takes steps to get incredibly close to Christie Zane, and stares her directly in the eyes. The tension is awkward.

Jack Harmen:

You wanna ask that question to me again?

Harmen's nose twitches as his eyes bulge out of their sockets. Zane takes a step back, and shakes her head no. Harmen scoffs.

Jack Harmen:

Harmen turns, and goes to walk off set, bumping into the cameraman as he does. Harmen shoves him down to the ground and wanders off.

Jack Harmen:

Christie helps the cameraman back to his feet, before turning to the large UTA sign Harmen propped up. She punches it so it tumbles and falls, revealing the DEFIANCE flag behind it to cheers from the audience.

GROUNDHOG DAY

The scene goes backstage as Gage Blackwood limps throughout the locker room area.

Angus:

This is becoming a trademark segment, I tell you. The Gage Blackwood beaten-the-hell-up-and-can-barely-move part of the program. [sigh]

Blackwood turns a corner and runs right into what looks to be a brick wall.

Then, on a second viewing... it's Gunther Adler.

Blackwood rubs his head.

Blackwood:

Get out of my way.

Surprisingly, Blackwood shows some fire towards the BRAZEN wrestler. However, given their short history - that Gunther is now 3-0 against him AND was the reason Blackwood got hit with numerous curb stomps from Chris Ross during DEFtv 94 - he could be justified in his actions.

Gunther Adler:

You're not well.

Adler speaks slowly, in almost broken English. Spending the majority of his life in Germany, he does have an understanding of the english language but his thick Bremen accent also makes it difficult for him to be completely understood.

Blackwood:

Aye. And who do I have to thank for that?

Gage insinuates this is Adler's fault.

Adler:

You could barely handle Jay Harvey out there...

Blackwood:

Aye. [long pause] I have no interest speaking to you after you fed me to Chris Ross.

Surprisingly, Adler nods. Then he points to his forehead, revealing a small scar from the stitches that were recently removed. He, too, was hit with a Chris Ross screwdriver... even if he initially did get in Gage Blackwood's way.

Blackwood nods and mutters "aye" again.

Adler:

I want another shot at him, too...

"Don't have to wait too long..."

SMASH~!!!

Angus:

WHAT THE HELL!?

Glass shatters everywhere. It's a mess of bodies and broken pieces of glass until the camera comes back into view.

Angus:

That god damn prick!

There, Chris Ross stands. Same asshole grin. Same asshole beating.

DDK:

Chris Ross just blindsided both Gunther Adler AND Gage Blackwood with a plate of glass!!

Both men lay out on the floor. Blackwood, who's not moving and Adler, who is and rolling around once again with both hands on the top of his head, shouting in pain.

Ross:

I told you, Gage, I'm always around.

Security quickly comes in to pull Ross away before he can do more damage.

Angus:

This is honestly cringe-worthy. Ross, Ross, Ross. The bloody Chris Ross show.

DDK:

If there's anything to take from this... we know Gage will get back up once again. And it looks as though The Boss has made himself another enemy now in Gunther Adler...

Angus:

Same old story. Can't wait until Chris Ross wins again on DEFtv 96...

Darren Quimbey:

Ladies and gentlemen, the following matchup is for the DEFIANCE Tag Team Championships!

The crowd cheers a bit before remembering who is in the match.

Darren Quimbey:

Quimbey's mic cuts out just as the lights go completely out. The usual routine of the Faithful lighting up the arena commences with cell phones being the only source of illumination in the ring. About thirty seconds pass and the lights come back on to The Kabal standing in the middle of the ring. At full strength Reaper Blue and Reaper Green stand in front of The Reaper Army.

Looking on from the outside Darren Quimbey has all but given up the introductions of challengers for the tag team titles.

The red carpet flows down from the entrance way as the crowds begin their negativity. The boos cascade down towards the ring as they appear from the back. Mikey has on two titles, the DEFIANCE Tag of course, and the WrestleUTA Hollywood Heritage Championship he recently debuted on UNCUT. Kendrix wears his Tag title proudly around his waist. The pair take in the scene, the opponents, and the crowd before continuing down the ramp and into the ring. They talk strategy and warm up as they stretch the ropes. Mikey is cautious to keep his eyes on Reaper Co.

Darren Quimbey:

The crowd boos. Was worth a shot.

The election of which Reapers would participate in the title bout is made clear when all but Reaper Blue and Reaper Green exit the ring. Navarro gives some last minute attempted instructions with the Bruvs brush off and Reaper's stay silent to. Reaper Green stays in the ring while Reaper Blue takes her spot in the corner.

DDK:

Looks like we're going to see Jesse Kendrix vs Reaper Green to start things off...

With JFK in for the Bruvs, Navarro rings the bell and Reaper Green immediately charges Kendrix, who ducks out of a grapple attempt and secures one of his own on Reaper Green. The two struggle to get leverage but Kendrix wins out after slamming a few knees into the gut of Green.

Pushing him towards his corner Kendrix gets Reaper Green pressed against the turnbuckle and Navarro steps in with a count to three, Jesse lets go at the last second, his hands held innocently up by the side of his head to satisfy the ref's stern words, however, he quickly throws a right hand toward Reaper Green but the Kebab member ducks under and out of the corner.

From behind Reaper Green spins Kendrix around into a stiff kick to the gut, doubling him over, Reaper Green quickly hooks him into a suplex. Unphased, Kendrix is onto one knee by the time Reaper Green is on his feet. He charges towards the recovering JFK, but Kendrix rolls out of the way and when Reaper turns around he catches a stiff slap directly to the face by the self proclaimed future of the business

Angus:

Ohhhhhhhh! LIGHT HIM UP REAPER!

The action comes fast and furious as JFK and Reaper Green exchange blows whilst gaining velocity with each one. This time it wakes up Reaper Green, whose head turns quickly towards Mikey, The mood on the "World's Greatest Entertainer" Changes quick and he begins to beg off and apologize. Angus:

GO REAPERS GO! Oh sorry Darren....

Mikey is irish whipped into the Reaper corner where he hits the turnbuckle pads hard. Reaper Green tags in Reaper Blue who is eager to get in on the action. Reaper Blue starts kicking and punching Mikey into the corner until he's in a seated position. Reaper walks to the center of the ring, looks at Kendrix and runs back at Mikey before hitting the dropkick into the corner flush against his face and chest.

Reaper Blue pulls Mikey out of the corner, and desperately he throws a low blow between the legs. Reaper Blue just stops and looks down at him. The crowd laughs loudly.

Angus:

That's not gonna work on her McFucker! Ha!

Mikey's head drops to his chest with quick disappointment. Reaper drops the point of her elbow across the crown of his head. She then lifts Mikey to his feet, he pushes her arms away and tries to make it to his corner but he's caught from behind by the waist of his pants. Reaper Blue pulls him toward her backward, catches him and with a large effort she German Suplexes Mikey over her head and onto the back of his neck, folding him in half.

The crowd jumps to their feet.

DDK:

Reaper Blue just put everything she had into that german suplex! Sending Mikey flying! Wow what surprising power!

Kendrix looks on, mouth open wide momentarily in shock before he decides to enter the ring but he's met with a hip toss before he rolls back out of the ring by the rampway, pulling his hair back in frustration as Reaper Blue stands, watching him lose his shit, perfectly still in domineering fashion.

Angus:

Haha! I'm loving these two get schooled, listen to this place Keeps!

However, the noise in the arena dies down very quickly as Mikey sends Blue face first to the mat courtesy of a running bulldog from behind. Jesse jogs back to his corner as Mikey drags Jessica toward his tag partner, the two slap hands.

DDK:

Mikey laying the boots in, now Kendrix joins in. The Hollywood Bruvs wearing down Reaper Blue here.

Mikey laughs in the face of the ref before finally making his way out of the ring. Having hauled Blue up to a standing position Jesse talks back to the ref marching him back to the centre of the ring while Mikey wraps his hands around Blue's neck, choking her from behind the turnbuckle. Kendrix pulls back hard after Blue tries to wrip his hands away from her jaw, but it's no use. She reaches out, drops her hand but not all the way. However, in another surprising show of strength, she pushes herself backwards and with JFK's shoulders on the mat, the ref drops to the mat.

FIST OF DEFIANCE: CAYLE MURRAY Â© VS. SCOTT STEVENS

DDK:

Welcome back folks. It's main event time, and boy, this one's troubling...

Angus:

We didn't see everything that happened between Cayle Murray and Scott Stevens earlier tonight, but we know the mormon cunt laid the FIST out. This isn't good, Keebs. Cayle's already a wounded animal, and it's hard to see him prospering after Stevens heaped even more punishment on him earlier.

DDK:

This may be the FIST's biggest challenge yet, Angus, you're right. Stevens made short work of his brother, Andy, the other week, and now holds all the advantages.

Angus:

Once again, all of our assholes are gonna be tighter than a nun's youknowwhat for the duration Fuck Mikey Unlikely. Fuck this bounty. Fuck WrestleUTA.

The slow bellow of the guitar hits and the cheers that filled the arena quickly turn into jeers of pure hatred. A group of security wearing #FUCKDEFIANCE t-shirts make their way down the stairs and Scott Stevens appears at the top, looking a little more pleased with himself than usual. As Stevens makes his way down the steps soda and food are thrown his way, but Stevens doesn't lose his focus as the garbage hits him.

♪ "Red In Tooth And Claw" by Rosetta ♪

The FIST's entrance theme erupts throughout the building, and the fans are in raptures as he appears against the perfect white backdrop. Decked out in championship attire, Cayle Murray walks down to the ring, full of bile. He's all banged up from earlier on, with several strategically-placed bandages adorning his body. Nonetheless, he bumps fists on his way, then rolls under the bottom rope.

The two grapplers take their positions in the spotlight for customary championship-style intros.

Darren Quimbey:

Ladies and Gentlemen, the following contest is for the FIST of DEFIANCE! Introducing first, to my right, the challenger, from The Great State of Texas, weighing in at 256 pounds...SCOTT! STEEEEEEEVEEEEEEEENS!

DDK:

Here we go!

Angus:

Pleasedontlose, pleasedontlose, pleasedontlose...

The bell rings. Afterwards, the opening 4-5 minutes play out in typical fashion. There's some cycling, some jostling, some poking & prodding, some grappling exchanges. Stevens wins most of these, given his size, power, and not-being-completely-beaten-the-fuck-up advantages, but Cayle uses his technique to slip and slide out of a couple.

Things pick up when Stevens breaks the pattern by tossing Cayle into the corner following one lock-up, then beating down on his midsection. Mudhole stomps send Cayle to his ass. Stevens chokes him with a boot, then gets called away by Slater, before taking Murray into the middle and working over his body.

Cayle eventually fights back, stinging the larger man with some trademark strikes. The first flurry goes to the body, then he goes upstairs. Stevens dodges a running Yakuza Kick, and attempts to boot Murray in the gut, but Cayle catches his leg and Dragon Screws him down. He starts working a kneelock, adopting a similar strategy to that used against Felton Bigsby and Chris Ross. Stevens, however, brute forces his way out of it.

DDK:

Stevens is all brawn here, and he's looking good. He busted his way out of Cayle's first big control period, and with the champion adopting a "grind 'em down" approach, it'll be interesting to see how this styles clash progresses.

The next couple of minutes see Stevens bludgeoning Cayle, much like he'd done to his brother a few weeks ago. Cayle gets a few licks in, though. He slips a couple of right and left hands, then blasts his challenger with a leaping Enzuigiri. A shotgun dropkick follows. With Stevens down in the corner, Cayle runs, hits him with a low dropkick to the face, then pulls him into the middle of the ring. He climbs for the Moonsault, but Stevens takes a powder.

Fans jeer as Scott takes a breather on the outside. Cayle's not waiting, though. He dashes over to a different corner, climbs up, then dives all the way to the outside! A risky move given his physical condition, but it comes off.

Murray knows that this isn't his environment. He goes back inside, taking his opponent with him. The FIST resumes working the leg first by booting it a couple of times, then trapping Scott in a Kneebar. Stevens gets to the ropes and rises to his feet, a little angered, and Cayle catches him with a couple of quickfire roll-ups for a set of near-falls. He gets a little over-enthusiastic, however, and Stevens catches him with the Double S Spinebuster on a rebound.

Angus:

Squid's playing it smart, dive aside. A slow, focused assault on Stoovins, but the challenger just smashed him.

DDK:

A powerful Spinebuster, crippling the torso as we had the 10-minute mark. Let's see what's next!

The Texan is in full control. He tosses Cayle around the ring with reckless abandon. Mudhole stomps, mounted punches, boots, chokes, chops: we get 'em all. Cayle catches him with another sneak roll-up for a two-count, but this only enrages Stevens further, prompting him to increase the intensity.

Murray gets thrown to the outside, where the bullying continues. The FIST is, in succession, whipped into the steps, tossed into the barricade, then slammed against the apron. Stevens rolls inside, rolls out to restart the 10-count, then DDT Cayle for good measure. He rolls back inside, arms outstretched, mocking the champ to a chorus of boos, calling for him to get inside. A broken, battered Murray does, breaking the count-out at eight.

Stevens continues working him over with a mix of strikes, transitional moves, then into a Sharpshooter. Cayle gets to the ropes. Scott laughs at this, seemingly enjoying himself, and slaps the FIST around before blasting him with a discus clothesline, then drilling him with the Scorpion Driver (sit-out Tombstone).

Stevens whips him into a corner then follows with a Stinger Splash. Whips him again, Stinger. AGAIN, clothesline. This time Stevens lets Cayle stumble out then drives him into the mat with a bulldog.

Scott takes the champion in a headlock then pushes his fist into his bandaged forehead. Murray roars in pain, and is helpless as Stevens tears the bandages away, then stands up, booting him with a soccer kick to the skull. The challenger kicks the FIST with mocking softness, then turns around, mocking the hateful fans.

DDK:

He's in complete control, but this may not be Stevens' smartest move! You don't want to give a competitor of Cayle's heart, soul, and guts time to recover, because his track record shows he'll almost certainly punish you for it!
